KIWANIS - THE GET INVOLVED BUNCH

A True Friend is somebody who can make us do what we can.--Emerson.

Come on, Friend Kiwanian, pick a pal and participate proudly in a partnership of particular people as we all strive to perceive and perform as the busiest club in the area.

Memo to: Last Year's Committee Chairman.

Pleeeeee return the Report Notebooks to Bob Birr by Monday, Oct. 13, 1969. They will be dusted 'n refilled 'n readied for your successors.

We are all delighted to see our good friend back in the swirl. His famous smile and his presence generated the loudest, heartiest, warmest, "Hi Hugh - Welcome Home" ovation our club has experienced for many moons.

Former President Howard Smith snatched a minute of the meeting to present pins to our President Wolf and Veep Colton.

President's memo: The first Board Meeting of the new regime will be called to order next Tuesday noon at Ye Roosevelt Inne. The President respectfully requests all board members and all committee chairmen arrange their busy schedules to attend this meeting. It is, I understand, a Kiwanis Mutual Admiration Society meeting for the purpose of getting acquainted with plans and programs revolving around our golden anniversary year -- it is your first opportunity to participate in our "Get Involved" theme. Better jot Oct. 14th, 1969, on your calendar right now.

Messrs. John Vernon, as M.C. and Speaker for National Newspaper Week; William Guess, Circulation Manager, and Leo Sears, City Circulation Manager, Cedar Rapids Gazette, provided a fine program honoring newspaper carriers nationwide. Eleven Gazette carriers, all well-shined young Americans, young businessmen, were our guests -- and proud we are to have had the opportunity to share an hour with them. They were chosen from about 500 carriers in the Cedar Rapids-Marion area to receive "The Inland Daily Press Association Outstanding Newspaperboy Award." Kiwanis extends our special congratulations to each of you for your achievement.

OCTOBER 15, 1969. FIREMEN TO BE HONORED.

PROGRAM FOR OCT. 15, 1969: "STORY HOUR" BY L. B. DE WEES

Jim Bowker is smoking out some fire material in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce office. He will present our guest fire-fighters with an appreciation plaque; and I am certain he will warm our hearts with some fire-brand comments for this hot occasion.

The Program Chairman was a little secretive about the story hour. HMMMMMMMM?????? Better check your drivers licenses in case we have to show proof of age to be admitted to this performance.

A man who watches the clock generally remains one of the hands.

Thanks for your time - have a great week to come.
