KIWANIS - PATRIOTISM ON THE MOVE

Kiwanis motivation can be called the force that moves a man to act to reach a given goal. As a general rule, a man performs best when his motivation comes from within, not from without.

Kiwanis Bored Meeting is scheduled for high noon Tuesday at the Roosevelt Hotel in one of the director's rooms on the mezzanine with "Southern Hospitality" exposure. Board members are respectfully reminded to put this meeting on their daily docket; and any member who so desires to join in the business proceedings and reportee will discover these meetings are everything except "bored." November 11, 1969 is the day.

Program for November 12, 1969

Mr. Don Young, Director, Cedar Rapids Art Center will be our guest speaker. His topic in the field of art has not been announced but since Mr. Young is so well trained in his field you can be sure his comments will be artfully enlightening.

Mr. Young came to Cedar Rapids in April, 1967, from his position as Curator of Museum of Art, Fort Wayne, Indiana; he received a "certificate of museology" from the Neward Museum, Neward, New Jersey; he studies at Emery and Henry College, Emery, Virginia; and he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Rutgers University.

VETERANS DAY ARMISTIC DAY

Amidst the swirl of the world, and amidst the many nationwide speeches to be made by true Americans at all levels of our structure, let us - each of us - close our eyes and offer our particular prayer for every man who has given his life for us and our country. Let us pray and work for a suspension of hostilities; let us, in the quiet of a few minutes of calm repose, again wonder and imagine what our world would be like with peace, hope, love and charity abounding among all people; let us regroup our thoughts in a state of quiet tranquility; let us take time to feel the inner harmony and contentment every Veteran desires; let us keep in motion thoughts and deeds which excite hope and promise of success toward an end to our war; again let the Lord be the hope; of His people.

Veterans Day, and every day, carries a certain indefinable mysticism; but to be grateful and thankful for being where we are is always enough to make it easy to honor our veterans with the utmost reverence.

Zoo Story: Printed especially for our alligator boosters:

The girl's father regarded the longhaired youth who had come over to spend the evening with some disdain.

"Tell me, son," he said finally, "is that your own hair - or are you traveling under an assumed name?"

(From the neat desk of our own Clyde Sanborn)

When a man finally finds greener pastures, he can't climb the fence.

Thanks again - and this week it is time for the girls in your life to be good to the boys. You may have to gently remind them.
