BROTHERHOOD WEEK PROGRAM SET FOR FEBRUARY 19TH

The week of February 16 - 22 is Brotherhood Week around this nation of ours, and our good Program Veep Jim Luhrs has arranged for quite a program next Wednesday noon, February 19th, on the subject of Brotherhood.

Former Kiwanian Ed Sears will be along to spearhead the discussion, and with him will be a panel consisting of teenagers and adults. Ed always puts on a good show. Y'all come!!

COMMITTEES TO MEET

Committees scheduled to meet this week: House & Reception, Interclub, International Relations, Education & Attendance, Laws.

ALL ABOARD FOR OMAHA ON SATURDAY

At least 4 and possibly more of our members will be in Omaha next Saturday, February 22nd, not only to attend the annual Mid-Winter Conference of the Nebraska-Iowa District but to celebrate George's Birthday.

The one-day conference, designed to help all officers, directors and chairmen of the local clubs, starts at 9:00 A.M. and concludes at 5:00 p.m. in The New Tower Hotel Courts in Omaha.

President Smith has announced that there may be a bus available to take members from this area. Contact Howard if you can go along. The club pays at least part of the expense.

ATHLETICS IN ACTION STARTING SUNDAY

Head Athlete Bob Rush has put together one of the finest outlines we've seen for the upcoming Service Club Olympics, and last week asked all members to sign up for from one to three events.

The annual Olympics gets underway Sunday, February 23rd, with Bridge, Chess and 8 Ball events. Additional events are set for March 2nd, with finals and wrapup on Tuesday, March 4th. We get lots of points for attendance at the dinner on March 4th, and this is one event every member can participate in -- so get with it, all you eaters!

Contact Bob Rush this week if you haven't sent in your entry form.

LINCOLNDAY VISIT TO FRANCE LAST WEEK

Following some well chosen remarks on the subject of Lincoln by our Historian-President Howard Smith (seeing as how it was Lincoln's Birthday), Mrs. Florence Masters took us on a slide trip around France - from Paris to the Basse-Pyrenees. She was in France last summer as a Fulbright Scholar, and is currently instructing in foreign languages at Area Ten College.

Two guests - Howard Smith introduced Kiwanian D.E. Roland, still visiting from California (Ice must be better than the melted variety); and guest of Ed Colton was Bob McAvoy.

BOARD CHIPS

During their regular meeting last Tuesday noon, February 11th, the Board of Directors:

- . . approved Treasurer's report for January indicating balances: General Fund - $1,101.26; Youth Fund - $835.37; and Marshall Fund - $1,266.43; approved bills totaling $125.21.
- . . authorized sponsorship again for a Kids League team next summer at a fee of $70.
- . . approved report of Vocational Guidance Committee and authorized sponsorship by our club of a Explorer Post. Chairman Walt Dunham will head up activity.
- . . approved plans outlined by Chairman Bob Rush of Athletics Committee for club participation in 1969 Service Club Olympics.
- . . granted request of Boys-Girls Work Chairman Terry Pointer for sponsorship by club in Experiment in International Living at a cost of $450.00 for this year only.
- . . reviewed and approved amended 1969 budget calling for expenditure of $5,970 during the 9-month year.
- . . reviewed all committee activity reports for month of January.
