REVEEN - CONCERT HYPNOTIST TO PROVIDE APRIL 30 PROGRAM

Reveen, the internationally celebrated Australian concert hypnotist is a master showman, a man of great integrity and a philanthropist. He will provide our program next Wednesday noon, April 30th, speaking on the science of hypnosis and its practical application in the lives of people. In particular, he will discuss how hypnosis is being used in medicine, dentistry, psychiatry, and how the principles of hypnosis can be used by business men, salesmen, leaders of people and individuals in planning successful lives.

LT. GOVERNOR NORTON VISITS LAST WEEK

Lt. Governor Harold Norton, Division II chief from the Central City Club, visited with us last Wednesday noon with some very good thoughts on our 1969 theme: STAND UP FOR FREEDOM".

He mentioned a new district award for membership. Each Kiwanian signing up three or more new members before the District Convention will receive an award. In addition, the Kiwanian in the district signing up the most new members, will receive a special award.

Norton called our attention again to the publication by the District of a book on the first 50 years of Kiwanis in the Nebraska-Iowa District, which will soon be available at a cost of $3.00. (Interested members may contact Bob Birr for ordering a copy.)

Bob Roberts presented his "new member autobiography".

NEW MEMBER

A big Kiwanis welcome, please, for our newest member:

GUESTS

Guests included our good past president from Texas-way, Warren Kintzinger, who brought a guest - Tom Wilkinson; Al Gee introduced Kiwanian Dudley Henderson from Central City; and Roy Parker introduced the new owner of Craemer's - Gene Pech.

SICKLIST

Frank Wilber reported that Bryce Fisher is in Mercy Hospital, Jim Bowker and Tony at St. Lukes. All apparently getting along fine and cards were signed for Jim and Bryce.

Special note to Isett and our golf team -- he can tell how he has used hypnosis to cut 20 strokes off a golfer's score.

Time will be allowed for questions, including any of a controversial nature, for he feels that hypnosis is a true science and that all questions can be answered to the satisfaction of his audience. We'll see! Don't miss it!

COMMITTEES

Meeting during lunch will be the following committees: House & Reception, Interclub, International Relations, Kiwanis Education & Attendance and Laws and Regulations.

REPORTS

And, this being the last day of the month, Activity Reports for April will be due and Secretary Birr will have forms available for all chairmen at this meeting.

BOARD APPROVES POLICE HONORS PROGRAM

The Laws & Regulations Committee is putting together a program for May 14th to honor several local police officers in conjunction with the Chamber and Interservice Club project for city-wide recognition.

The Board has authorized Bryce Fisher and his committee -- with Al Gravelie chairman of event - to accept contributions of $2.00 from as many Kiwanians as possible to defray cost of inviting officers to lunch and presenting a suitable plaque as provided through the Chamber.

SEE THAT AL RECEIVES YOUR $2.00 NEXT WEEK

DON'T FORGET the Law Day program on May 1st at the Hotel Roosevelt - Lions are hosts.
