"UP WITH PEOPLE" PEOPLE TO PROVIDE JULY 9TH PROGRAM

Imagine, if you can, 120 young high school and college boys and girls converging upon our meeting next Wednesday noon, July 9th. It isn't going to happen, but guess it wouldn't be any more than one of our local high school choirs. What will happen? Two members of group known as "Up With People" will be with us to tell about the group, and to show a movie of their 2½ month trip around the world last summer.

HUMPHREYS ON AMERICA JULY 2ND

Attorney Lloyd Humphreys, with just two days under his belt as president of the Cedar Rapids Jaycees for 1969-70, spoke last week about some of the problems in "Our America".

One thing mentioned, several times in fact, is responsibility - a word nowadays often divorced from "freedom". We mention this only to call attention again, lest we forget, that for each "freedom" there is corresponding "responsibility".

ANNIVERSARIES

Two big anniversaries this week - one we mentioned last week - Oscar Anderson, who joined the club July 1, 1927. Outshading Oscar, though, is our Secretary-emeritus Tony Pleune, who joined June 30, 1921. One little one - Frank Anderson joined in early July. CONGRATULATIONS to all!

GUESTS

Another "interclub" week, as four members of the Washington club joined us: Bob Koehler, Norman Schoonover, N. L. Twecton, and Bob Nicola, who was elected at our June 18 Division caucus to serve as Lt. Governor in Division II for the year beginning October 1. Kiwanian Harry Robson from Marion was also with us.

EDUCATION

Clyde Sanborn, Vice-chairman of Kiwanis Education and Attendance, called our attention to the fine articles of interest in the Kiwanis Magazine.

Vice-president Jim Luhrs was all alone up there this week - and "when the cats are away . . ." (we adjourned shortly after 1:00, after an excellent program too).

We'll see what happens next week when the "cats" are back from Miami - and Jim's away on two weeks vacation!!!!

Basically, the group is musical and they have performed on TV and at the Nixon inaugural. This month, and next, they will be touring Iowa, giving concerts, under the auspices of the Iowa Development Commission.

The youngsters hail from all parts of America, and are hoping to make it around the World a second time.

Bob Birr says "you'll like this one".

DIRECTORS SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY NOON

The July meeting of the Board of Directors will be held Tuesday noon at the Roosevelt Hotel.

Undoubtedly, we'll have a report from the International Convention via Smith and Wolf.

All Kiwanians are welcome. Both the new and old directors and officers should attend.

KIWANIS' DOC FENNER IN ACTION AGAIN

Hope you noticed the nice publicity (including pictures) of the All-Iowa Fair Dairy Judging winners in the Gazette last Sunday.

Doc's publicity agent performed beautifully as two pictures appeared showing his presentation of our Kiwanis trophies to the FFA and 4-H winning teams.

We have provided trophies for this contest each year for a good many (maybe Doc can tell you just how many).

This is an annual project of our Agriculture and Conservation Committee. Needless to say, Doc Fenner is chairman; and this is Kiwanis in Action!
