LAST OF AUGUST SURPRISE SUMMERTIME SPECIAL FOR 27TH PROGRAM

It's been a while since we've had one of these, but "Lucky" Luhrs - not to be outdone by anyone (past, present or future) has announced that his final August program will come as a surprise - with just one month to go. So, let the element of intrigue show through and be on hand next Wednesday noon, August 27th, for ????????????

CIRAS DEFINED LAST WEEK

Mr. Waldo W. Wegner, Director of The Center for Industrial Research and Service - an Extension arm of Iowa State University in Ames, related last week the purpose of his organization and some of the case histories which they have experienced since CIRAS was activated July 1, 1963.

Basically, CIRAS is a problem-handling facility - a place for Iowa industry and business, both large and small, to bring its questions. If they don't have an answer, they make every effort to find one somewhere. Certainly a fine service for Iowa business.

Norill Rogness, a new member of our club, and the local field representative for CIRAS, introduced his "boss".

GUESTS

Seemed that "parents" and visiting Kiwanians took over the guest list as Forest Wolf introduced his son Jim from Endicot, N.Y.; Bob Armstrong brought along his "number one son-in-law" Dr. Ralph Dusek from Mass.; a former Waukon Kiwanian, now in Cedar Rapids, John McFarland was introduced by Frank Wilber; Don Wegner and Jim (or Bill as you prefer) Ensign joined us from the Metro club; and our immediate past president, now from Richardson, Texas, Warren Kintzinger was with us this week.

One anniversary - and he wasn't even there - Orie Lawrence joined the club 8/31.

And "Porky" didn't collect a dime all day . . . Jameson's on vacation, and Downing rested. Decorum - not too bad!

DEWEES INJURED

It was reported during the meeting that Hugh DeWees suffered a serious head injury last weekend aboard his boat, and is in the hospital at Prairie du Chien. A card was signed by Kiwanians present to be sent to Hugh.

NEW MEMBER INDUCTION

We still have several new members who have not formally been inducted, so we understand that this will be a part of the agenda for Wednesday noon. We know you'll want to get to know our new Kiwanians a bit better, and this induction ceremony will help accomplish just that.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Also, being the final meeting for August, Secretary Birr will be looking for August activity reports from all committee chairmen. Wonder what ever happened to the weekly committee meeting bit?

CHECK ATTENDANCE CARD

Upon arrival next Wednesday noon, please check your attendance card carefully and make any changes necessary to make sure it is up to date -- address, phone, business, etc.

The new 1969-70 Bulletin Roster will be made up within the next 10 days and sent to the printer so they'll be ready by October 1.

If you can't make the meeting, and there has been any change (check your listing on the back of this BULLETIN), better call Bob Birr at his office very soon!

LUHRS-CORELL HEAD FOR HASTINGS

Vice President Jim Luhrs and Past Lt. Governor Jim Corell, will be heading for Hastings, Nebr. this weekend to attend the annual convention of our Nebraska-Iowa district.

Among the items on the agenda for the district is a proposed dues increase of $1.00 per year, which if approved, somewhere along the line like taxes gets passed on to the member.

The meeting starts Sunday evening and closes with a luncheon meeting Tuesday.
