KIWANIS - OUR THEME IS GOOD FELLOWSHIP

A man shows what he is by what he does with what he has.

PROGRAM FOR MARCH 4, 1970: Mr. E. W. Munsell, President, Creswell, Munsell, Schubert & Zirbel, Inc., advertising firm located here in Cedar Rapids will talk to us on - - -

"IOWA --- A PLACE TO GROW."

This is Iowa's new promotion theme; the theme and symbol were introduced by Governor Ray last January 6th. Our speaker created the theme and symbol for the Iowa Development Commission. He will tell us about their development - give us a preview of how the theme and symbol will be used to promote Iowa - and a report of how various communities, business, and industry are already using the theme and symbol.

The promotion of Iowa is obviously important to every one of us - plan to be here next Wednesday to learn about this timely and interesting subject.

GUEST REGISTER:

William Jameson, Jr. introduced his dad, Hon. Judge Jameson.

Richard McConnell introduced one of his associates - Mr. Kim Steveley.

Mr. Sportsman, now Mr. Baseball, our Mr. Don Isett, introduced a batch of fellows from the Marion, Iowa club, Messrs. Fry, Wade, Mills, Hartford, Parmeter and Taylor. They got a club visit stripe, and from the sounds coming from their table I'm sure they heard some new baseball stories from our new President.

ANNIVERSARY BELLS:

Bells - bells - bells -- we are all happy to tip our congratulatory hats to the following Kiwanians as they celebrate another anniversary in this great club.

Frank Elias Feb. 24, 1964
Adolph Helm Feb. 27, 1963

Warren McAllister Feb. 26, 1947
Joseph Ainsworth Feb. 25, 1945

SERVICE CLUB OLYMPICS:

Assistant Coach, Ricky Landis, made a most sporty announcement regarding Kiwanis participation in the city wide tournament coming next month. 1970 is the year of the Kiwanian.

If Everyone

If everyone who drives a car could lie a month in bed,

With broken bones and stitched up wounds, or fractures of the head,

And there endure the agonies that many people do,

They'd never need preach safety any more to me or you.

If everyone could stand beside the bed of some close friend

And hear the doctor say "no hope" before the final end,

And see him there unconscious, never knowing what took place

The law and rules of traffic I am sure we'd soon embrace.

If everyone could meet the wife and children left behind,

And step into the darkened home where once the sunlight shined,

And look on "The Vacant Chair" where Daddy used to sit,

I am sure such reckless driver would be forced to think a bit.

If everyone who takes the wheel would say a little prayer,

And keep in mind those in the car depending on his care,

And make a vow and pledge himself to never take a chance,

The Greatest Crusade for safety then would suddenly advance.

By Division of Safety Education
Iowa Department of Public Safety.

In keeping with our Kiwanis Club general objectives (to give primacy to human life - to encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule - to promote the adoption of higher social, business, and professional standards - to develop a more intelligent citizenship - to provide a practical means to build better communities - and to cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which makes possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill) I was impressed with the thoughts set out in "If Everyone" shown at the side.

Now substitute the word "drugs" for "car", or "drug user" for "driver" and see how appropos these thoughts become in relation to our present drug problem. A constant and interested awareness on our part will help us do our bit to stamp out the wrongful use of drugs. Get involved - save a life if you can!

THE ED BRUNS OUTSTANDING KIWANIAN SERVICE AWARD

Mr. James Luhrs, our illustrious and illustrative First V.P., presented Dr. Clarence Fenner with a beautiful oil painting by Ed Bruns as our Outstanding Kiwanian. Dr. Fenner was selected by a vote of Committee Chairmen -- and congratulations are much in order for this devoted member.

Dr. Fenner has these words of thanks for you -

"Gentlemen, my fellow Kiwanians, I was so pleased, so flattered, so fussed last Wednesday that I found myself without words. I have always wanted a Bruns painting - and I wish to thank you all for bestowing this honor on me. Kiwanis is an important part of my life and it is included, somehow, in my daily pattern of living. I thank you for helping to keep me abreast in our changing world. I thank Kiwanis for countless happy hours over the years and you can be sure I will do my utmost to further the Kiwanis ideals in the future. I will continue to try to keep myself worthy of this award. I do appreciate far more than words alone can convey being selected. Thank you so much."

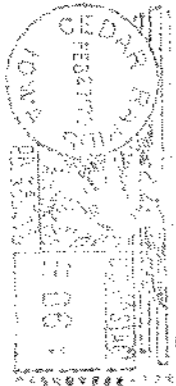

Economy: A way of spending money without getting any pleasure out of it.
