Program for Wednesday - April 29, 1970

The program is about the Junior Achievement organization in Cedar Rapids. Two or more of the participants will be at the rastrum to tell us about their newly acquired talents in their particular business venture. The young men and women who form the various companies in the "JA" program always learn a lot themselves -- and I am sure we will learn a lot from them. See you Wednesday!

Guests are welcome!

Everybody has a friend in our good Kiwanian friend - Ed Bruns. The invitation was announced at our regular meeting but for those of you who were absent Mr. Luhrs thought (and I agreed) that you should have the invitation. Hope you can attend and learn about beauty through the eyes and heart of a genuine and genial Kiwanis expert.

Although April for us has been rather chilly and wet and somewhat uncomfortable let us think of Spring with the masters:

April cold with dropping rain
Willows and lilacs brings again,
the whistle of returning birds
and trumpet-losing of the herds.

--Ralph Waldo Emerson

When proud-pied April, dressed in all his trim
Has put a spirit of youth in everything.

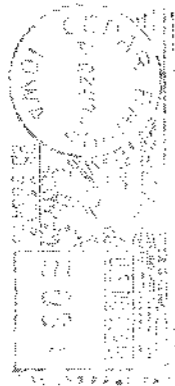

--William Shakespeare

Thank you for your time - have a rich week to come!
