K I W A N I S - WE THRIVE ON CONCERN FOR OTHERS

In our Country when you hear or see the word "Save," it is usually the beginning of an advertisement designed to invite you to spend money.

PROGRAM FOR JULY 1, 1970.

President Wolf and Veep Colton have just returned from the Kiwanis International Convention in Detroit, Michigan. They will present their report of the convention and, hopefully, they will report a little on each other's "after convention escapades" to add the spice. With these two officers representing our Club you can be sure we will be in for a report and a half. Do come hear about Kiwanis in action on a nation-wide scale through the eyes and singing chords of our illustrative, industrious convention representatives.

Guest book was signed by the following:

- Mr. Calhoun, introduced by Mike Kennedy;
- Mr. Bromfield, introduced by Orrie Lawrence;
- Mr. Ohsman, introduced by Roy Stoddard.

Memo to Committee Chairman: The middle of next week rings in July and all its glory. Hope you all can find time this weekend to complete your Club reports and thereby earn your glory for June.

Thought from Florida via Coral Ridge Towers Bulletin and the special courtesy of Clyde Sanborn. Clyde is, indeed, a live Kiwanian and a real inspiration to everyone fortunate enough to cross his path.

"Take time to:

- Think - it is the source of power.*
- Read - it is the fountain of wisdom.*
- Play - it is the secret of perpetual youth.*
- Work - it is the price of success.*
- Be friendly - it is the road to happiness.*
- Laugh - it is the music of the soul.*
- Love and be loved - it is a God-given privilege.*
- Give - it is too short a day to be selfish.*
- Pray - it is the greatest power on earth.*
- Grow old gracefully - these are your golden years."*

Opportunity knocks once - but unfortunately temptation keeps hammering.

Most of us keep one eye on the temptation we pray not to be led into.

It was pleasant sharing these Kiwanis minutes with you. Trust your summer hours in the week ahead, both at work and play, will be comfortable and productive.

Queens to Kings: "I love you, doggonit!"
