THIS WEEK--November 3, 1971

Roosevelt Hotel--Bob Majors, Director of Development for Cornell College, discussing the "Fiscal Dilemma of the Small College." Mr. Majors knows whereof he speaks. Raising money to assure continuing operation of the colleges during this period of "economic stability" is a frustrating assignment. Next Wednesday Majors will share some of his frustrations with us!

MORE CHEWIN'

In conjunction with his special assignment to get more money into the kitty, Jim Luhrs recommended to the Board that the number of Gum Ball Machines be increased. Without hesitation, the Board voted to double the number of machines! Your help may be needed to ferret out new sites.

LAST WEEK

Wednesday was the initial round of monthly committee meetings. Committees discussed plans for the year ahead and, prior to adjournment, a spokesman for each committee gave a 60-second summary report. The next meeting of the committees will be Wednesday, November 17. Ed Colton asks that the Committee Chairmen keep in mind that the Board meets the second Tuesday of each month. If Board action is required, submit recommendations.

Comments made by the Committee Spokesman indicate that we may anticipate an active and interesting year--with a variety of programs, including several aimed at making the Downtown KIWANIANS more knowledgeable concerning local industries and businesses--their plans and problems; expansion of the youth activities working with the schools and churches to aid, counsel and help promote specific programs such as Circle K and Key Clubs; an aggressive drive by the Attendance Committee to improve our record in that department; continuation of the agriculture, conservations and athletic programs is planned (Clarence Fenner did a bit of a soft shoe, treading water as he reported in Committee Chairman Larry Wichman's absence!). All in all, it would appear we have much to look forward to----if we all work at it!

VISITORS

Ray McMurray of Newton, Iowa; former KIWANIAN Lt. Governor with the unbelievable record of 42 years of perfect attendance; guest of Frank Wilbur.

Vocational Counselor M. Hill from Kennedy High School, Cedar Rapids, guest of Charles McIntyre.
