ROOSEVELT HOTEL WEDNESDAYS 12:10 NOON

Iowa
a place to grow

December 17, 1971
Vern Perry, Editor

THIS WEEK--December 22, 1971

Roosevelt Hotel--Don't you dare hide this program announcement from the family! This is the one they've been waiting for! And this year the party includes your wife, as well as the children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and young friends.

The Stripling Hand and Glove Players will be back with a new show. Remember "The Christmas Knight" of last year? Remember the Iovable Dragon? Wonder what the Stripling family has in store for us this year. And Santa will stop in to do his thing!

Important--Dick Landis wants to hear from you on Monday, December 20. How many are you bringing and how many child-sized lunches do you want to order? Call Dick at 362-2111.

MUGGS

If you didn't look at your picture on the Downtown KIWANIS Bulletin Board last Wednesday--check it this week. Can't understand why Bill Jamesen did that to me. All the pictures are so good, except mine!

WINTER CONFERENCE

A one-day KIWANIS "Leadership Training" conference will be held at the Paxton Hotel in Omaha, Saturday, January 15. Talk it up!

LAST WEEK

Even if I couldn't have heard it--I would have enjoyed the Kennedy High School Choir! The enthusiasm and joy which shone on the faces of the some-seventy young people as they made such beautiful music--made me feel warm all over. And you know, it's getting to me! I thoroughly enjoyed that rock and blues Cantata, "The Creation." Didn't sound a bit sacrilegious to me! (Sorry about this. As an objective reporter, I'll never make it. Can't keep my opinions out of my writing!)

Conductor James Kimmel led the choir through--"A Jubilant Song", "The Angel's Song", "Did Mary Know?", "The Three Kings" and the aforementioned "The Creation", adding his own youthful enthusiasm to an exciting performance. Think it was Dick Landis who said the other day--"The Downtown KIWANIS always seem ready to listen to youth." What more can one say? Think about it. Makes one proud to be a member, because I really believe that statement is true.

Incidentally, the Strings, Choir and Band of Kennedy High School will present "Christmas 1971" Monday, December 20, at 8:00 P.M. The price of admission--Fresh Fruit! The young people plan to do a bit of Santa Clausin' themselves and will give the fruit to shut-ins and others who may find Christmas pickin's a bit slim without the help of those more fortunate. How can you beat that combo? An excellent musical program linked with a most worthy cause.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Am sure Confucius must have had some words to ease the strain, but I don't know what they were. Anyway--come prepared to dig into what is left and give to provide a bit of Christmas cheer for those good ladies who serve us lunch each Wednesday noon.

GUESTS

Former Downtown KIWANIAN Forrest Wolfe from Danville, Illinois, guest of Bob Blinn. L. B. DeWees of Marion, guest of Mike Kennedy.

ANNIVERSARIES

Ronald E. Moore--December 15, 1971.

DIG DEEP

The Salvation Army Bell Ringers need our help. It is estimated that $10,000 will be required to assure that everyone in the community has a Christmas dinner. The deadline is approaching and todate, only $5,300 has been contributed. If you are afraid you'll be accused of making a pass at one of the young "kettle minders" if you drop your contribution in the bucket--just slip Major Adney or Major Kimmons a fist-full of green or a check!
