PROGRAM THIS WEEK

The program for December 8 is a special Kiwanis Key and Circle K Club event. Lt. Gov. elect Carl V. Hayes and Representatives of Circle K and Circle Key Club will present the program. All Kiwanis Clubs in the metropolitan area have been invited and all Kiwanians are urged to attend this informative and challenging program. Since an effort to establish a Key or Circle K Club would be aided by any information our Queens might provide us the Queens are invited to attend also. Let's make this a big affair!

PROGRAM LAST WEEK

December 2 - Bill Quimby who officiated at the Michigan - Ohio State football game when Woody Hays disagreed with a call presented an interesting and informative program. Bill feels that officiating requires the same decision making ability as is required to run a successful business but that in officiating the calls must be made much quicker and without time for consultation generally. He pointed out the great pressure an official can be under when he makes an unpopular call on a playing field surrounded by more than 100,000 spectators, at least 50,000 of whom might disagree.

NEW MEMBERS

John Counts and Waldern Rapp were introduced--get to know them.

ANNIVERSARIES

Fred Kluss who joined in 1929 and Clarence Fenner who joined in 1933 had anniversaries. Brother Fenner has a perfect 33 years of perfect attendance.

MEMBERSHIP WELFARE

Vernon Perry is recuperating at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester and secretary Joe Powers is home recuperating from an infection. Either would appreciate a note or a call.
