THIS WEEK---May 12, 1971

Roosevelt Hotel---Cedar Rapids Police Chief Geogre Matias discussing the Police Departments's activities and accomplishments. An excellent opportunity to show the Chief that we appreciate what he and his staff are doing to keep Cedar Rapids a fine place to live.

BOARD MEETING

Roosevelt Hotel, Tuesday Noon, May 11, 1971

LAST WEEK

The Youth For Christ/Campus Life RANDOM SAMPLE musical group which had lunch with us February 17 was more entertaining---but Cedar Rapids Youth For Christ Director Robert Dye's presentation yesterday was most interesting and informative. It makes one feel good to know that there still are individuals such as Bob Dye and organizations such as Youth For Christ trying to do everything possible to give today's frustrated youth something to challenge their active minds and something to live for. Their's isn't an easy task.

I was interested to learn that---The Youth For Christ program began in 1944; That Billy Graham was the first full-time staff member; That Cedar Rapids has had a relatively inactive YFC organization for several years; That Bob Dye grew up on a farm in western New York State, has been with YFC for 12 years and that he and his family came to Cedar Rapids last August from Port Huron, Michigan.

Youth for Christ in a non-denominational organization, working with schools, churches and other organizations which have youth programs and an interest in young people. They have no intention of building up a large organization or facilities. They are trying to help teenagers help each other, well aware that only a teenager understands a teenager.

Bob Dye is currently trying to find a way to purchase 15 ten-speed bicycles so that groups of youngsters and staff members can go on extended and overnight outings. If you have such a bike you will donate, give the Youth For Christ office a call. They are located in the 1st Avenue Building. Funding of YFC is 20% from churchs and the balance from individuals who feel strongly enough about the value of the program that they are willing to dig deep to help the cause.

Bob reports the RANDOM SAMPLE is back in California after a long and most successful tour.
