COMMITTEE REPORTS

Frank Wilbur has his hand out! Committee chairmen please note and give Frank your reports.

LAST WEEK

Joan Lipsky reports that the session of the Iowa Legislature recently concluded was rugged. But she is optimistic. She doesn't believe the next session can possibly be as bad as the last! The Legislature convened in January, 1971, to face a $25 Million state treasury deficit--in addition to the miserable job of reapportionment. It is generally agreed that there has been only one longer session and none with a more difficult set of problems to solve.

Most of the major bills received coverage by the press. Some of the most important and time-consuming were--State Reapportionment, School Tax, Drug Reform, Municipal Code Revision and passage of the 26th Amendment to the U. S. Constitution to give 18-year-olds the right to vote. (Iowa was the 5th state to ratify the amendment.)

While it wasn't easy, Mrs. Lipsky obviously feels a certain air of accomplishment. The House got through all of the major bills and took action. The softness of the economy made it particularly difficult to resolve the tax and school support problem--and to take action to wipe out the deficit. Late reports indicate the state's economy appears to have firmed and there is every reason to believe that the state will be solvent at year's end. State Representative Joan Lipsky gave us an excellent broad brush treatment covering the activities of the Iowa House. See "THIS WEEK" for what is in store for you on Wednesday!

VISITORS: Bruce Stuart, guest of Steve Root. Gene Frye, guest of Bill Jameson.

SOMEONE'S MISSING

Each of you probably has his own reason for remembering Don Isett. While I had known Don slightly for quite a number of years, I didn't really get acquainted with him until he asked me to help him sell advertising for the Cedar Rapids Cardinals Baseball Club early this year. Prior to his illness, and during the early stages of it, we met daily to plan strategy and access our accomplishments. I needed someone to help me screw up my courage to tackle a few more prospects. And, I like to think, Don needed someone like me to listen to his problems. As Gus Schrader said in RED PEPPERS of July 5, when paying a tribute to Don, "...he was honest, tough and forthright in addition to being the strongest competitor on the course." Don's enthusiasm was contagious. We'll miss his voice--from-the-bench, his shoulder-to-the-wheel, his impatient encouragement, his humor

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

Both Ed Colton and Jim Rasley expressed a deep feeling of pride for the manner in which their fellow KIWANIS conducted themselves in San Francisco during the International Convention. But, Ed, didn't fully appreciate the antique plane (DC-7) provided for the flight from DM; and Jim was somewhat taken aback by the blatant display of pornographic pictures and literature in that otherwise beautiful and unique city of San Francisco. More report from the convention later.

TWO NEW WHEELS

In a letter to Ed Colton, Kathy Werneburg, Cedar Rapids, thanks the Downtown KIWANIS for the contribution which helped replace her old wheelchair and put her on wheels again. Several Service Clubs participated, I understand.
