THIS WEEK--September 1, 1971

Roosevelt Hotel--Cedar Rapids East Side KIWANIAN Wallace Kemp will show slides and describe his recent trip to the Far East. Kemp is bringing along his own cheering section. The East Side KIWANIANs are going to make an inter-club of it next Wednesday!

SEE YOU AT CHARLIE'S

Speaking of inter-clubs--the Downtown KIWANIANs are having lunch with the East Side KIWANIANs Tuesday noon, August 31 at CHARLIE'S. Bob Armstrong will present the program. It might be well worth your while to attend. Understand that Bob is going to try to complete the tour this round. Remember--he left us in Venezuela that Wednesday noon when he ran out of time? We never did see his slides of Surinam!

LAST WEEK

KIWANIAN Brooks Booker, Director of Conferences, University of Iowa, obviously is no amateur when it comes to waving the Red, White and Blue. It was good to have someone tell us "What's Right with America." We hear it so seldom. The other side gets banner headlines and top billing. (There is a real challenge here for the journalist--to make the "right" happenings sound sensational enough to sell newspapers and books.)

Colonel Booker spent 28 years in the Air Force. He was the Military Governor of Munich after WWII; flew the Berlin Airlift hauling coal and potatoes to the isolated; was Director of War Plans in the Pentagon, and for a number of years just prior to his retirement from the Service, was Professor of Air Science at the University of Iowa. The Colonel's Masters Degree is in Soviet Economics and Politics.

It isn't my impression that Colonel Booker is an alarmist, but he is obviously very concerned that the communists (Soviet and Peking style) are making considerable progress infiltrating our government and influencing our very way of life. In spite of President Nixon's overtures to Peking and our dialogue with the Soviets, the Colonel doesn't think the communists have changed their game plans. Their goal still is world domination, no matter how long it takes and how many lose their heads in the process. He read us a list of goals published some 40 years ago by the communist press--encourage student agitation and riots; infiltrate teachers' organizations and the churches; discredit the FBI; promote moral decay; etc. It reads like the morning paper! Colonel Booker encouraged us to get in there and do a bit of flag waving of our own. Stand up and be counted. The good guys need a few headlines!

VISITORS

Fred Maines--guest of Jim Crumrine.
Scott Gravelie--guest of his Dad, Al Gravelie.

SECOND ROUND--SAME BIRD

Bill Jameson will be on hand with his camera on Wednesday to take pictures of those of you who weren't "shot" during the first sitting. The system appears practical. The picture of each member will be combined on a page with pertinent personal data and then the pages will be printed in sufficient quantities so that each member can have his own set for ready reference--to help identify the "strangers" who keep showing up at the table for lunch each Wednesday noon.
