Vern Perry, Editor

THIS WEEK----June 21, 1972

Roosevelt Hotel-----Harnischfeger's Vice President in charge of the Mining and Construction Division, from Milwaukee----Mr. James Mezera.

In addition, your opportunity for the year, to nominate that guy you have been wanting to get even with for one of the officer positions of the Club! The election will take place on the 28th of June.

The nominees to date----2nd Vice President: Albert Gee and Russ Mueller; Treasurer: Kenneth Holvenstott; Directors: Duane Anton, Wallace Brown, Richard Chandler, Joe Greenlief, Charles McIntyre and Joe Stenner. (There isn't anyone in the club whom I dislike enough to nominate for Bulletin Editor----but I'm giving it a lot of thought!)

NEW MEMBERS

Wish this were a list, rather than a reminder that you haven't come up with your recommendation so far this month! Appears we need some concentrated and continuous action by all members to assure we don't wind up losing our position as the largest KIWANIS Club in Cedar Rapids.

THIS IS THE WEEK

The KIWANIS' International Convention in Atlantic City, June 18 thru June 21.

COMMITTEE ACTIVITY

Finally found a project for the Agriculture and Conservation Committee. President Colton received a request from a KIWANIS Club to the East asking for the donation of a vigorous and growing sapling, a "State Tree of Iowa" for their park. There seems to be some argument as to whether the Iowa state tree is just any variety of oak - or is it the Pin Oak?

LAST WEEK

"Dames at Sea", Jefferson High School auditorium. Suspect that Joe Power's sign-in list for Downtown KIWANIANs at the Roosevelt last Wednesday was longer than the list of those from the same Club who attended "Dames"----but hopefully the final tally of tickets sold will show that the financial support was there, even if attendance appeared to be a bit on the light side.

The show was a fun thing. With appeal primarily to the graying heads who remember the "follies", and such musicals with lots of song and dance and little story or plot. Professional reviewer L.Z., in Thursday's Gazette, expressed it much better than I can---"Dames at Sea" is an unusual show in many respects. There's not a smut line....., the show presents no message and there's not a protest song from start to finish." And it does keep a lot of young people off the streets and out of the taverns. The cast is large, made up of young folks with enough talent and energy to turn many of us green with envy!
