THIS WEEK

October 3 - Lt. Governor, John Mitchell, congratulated the outgoing officers for a job well done----and installed the 1973/1974 officers with a reminder that they are following a fine act. Some fifty Downtown KIWANIANS and their wives/guests assembled at the Montrose Hotel Wednesday evening to honor the 1972/1973 officers and welcome the new team consisting of President Dick Landis; 1st Vice President Russ Mueller and 2nd Vice President/Program Chairman Duane Anton. In a brief acceptance speech, Dick congratulated outgoing President Bill Jameson for providing imaginative leadership during a successful 1972/1973----and the basis for an exciting and fruitful 1973/1974.

Ed Colton and Gene Young led that most unqualified group of singers, the Downtown KIWANIANS, thru several "selections". (Gene is improving. He has finally learned that we do much better if he plays loud! So the piano/organ drowns out the singers!)

Following the installation of officers, George Henry Cedar Rapids Professional Photographer, took us down the canyons of the Yampa and Green Rivers via a narrated color film, "A River Odyssey". George has been piloting the rubber boats down the rivers of Utah/Colorado for some 17 years. The film was prepared by George at the request of Hatch River Expeditions, his employer during the Memorial Day to Labor Day season. The film is a very professional, informative promotion piece, used to help sell the 4-day, $99.00, thrill-filled ride down the rapids.

NEXT WEEK

The program for next week will be Jim Steinbeck, the candidate for Safety Commission.

PANCAKE DAY---November 3

Some 50 posters to promote the KIWANIS' Pancake Day will be available for distribution the middle of next week (October 10/11). Publicity workers from the four participating Cedar Rapids clubs are working together to let the community know what is on the griddle. Jim Loyd has agreed that he will give the promoters a hand and a program to promote the affair via the newspaper is in the works. The committee will welcome ideas from the members. Give Charlie McIntyre, Bob DeMeulenaere or Vern Perry a call.

Ticket sales are not progressing as well as expected. 700 tickets have been distributed by the Advance Ticket Sale Committee which means that 1300 more are available for members to sell in order to meet our goal... You are all encouraged to do your very best to make this Pancake Day a successful annual event, and this means selling at least 20 tickets each.

REPORTERS WANTED

I am requesting that all the members phone me with regards to any membership news that I can include in the paper each week.

ANNIVERSARIES

Ken Holvenstot had a birthday on October 4; Happy Birthday Ken! Horace McGrath became a Kiwanian on October 9, 1957.
