Thanksgiving Thought - The following thought for Thanksgiving is written by Steve Root-

A THANKFUL MAN--Lord, I am thankful for the coarse feel of bread between my hands; the squeezing embrace of my children; the patience born of love of my wife; the unhurried conversations with my friends; the warm heaviness of my coat on a winter day; the thawing heat of my fireplace; the roar of the ocean and the gull's cry; the bracing air of the mountain; the eagerness and confidence in a youth's eyes; the hand of common sympathy or concern on my shoulder; the prideful feeling of a parent - grandparent. Father I thank you beyond words for Yourself expressed to me in the saving life and Spirit of Christ. Grant that I may always be more ready to share and give the significant things in life than to receive. May I always be a loving, simple, direct child of yours, in short, a thankful man.

November 21, Program - The program presented to the membership by the Camfel Productions group was one of the best of an exceptionally fine series of programs we have been enjoying for the past several months. Entitled "The 6th Door", this multimedia production explored and expounded the six symbolic doors to freedom and happiness. The sixth door being the achievement of this goal through Christ; this being the only true path.

The program used the contemporary idiom, but the meanings were also plain for all of us to see. It is too bad that the entire membership couldn't have been there to see this terrific program. Thanks to Bob Dye for making it possible for us.

November 28, Program - It sounds like another winner next week. Jim Oetken has invited some of the leading Cedar Rapids sports writers, including Tait Cummins to discuss the current coaching situation at the University of Iowa, especially with regards to the firing of FXL. Sounds like another winner (the program, not the coach).

Pancake Day - The returns are in from the Kiwanis Pancake Day and Charlie McIntyre reported that our club had a net profit of $493.75. This was nearly double of my previous estimate and is a tribute to all of the members who spent so much time on this project. Our club spent 85 man hours on the project and we sold 560 tickets. We all expect that this project will improve year after year and we are gratified that it was successful from the start.

I think that a special word of thanks should go to Charlie McIntyre who started working on the Pancake Day in July and coordinated the entire well organized program for all of the four Kiwanis clubs involved. Bob DeMeulenaere was the General Chairman for our club and also did an exceptional job. We are indebted to these two gentlemen for the success of this project.

Other News - Anniversaries - Bryce Fisher and Ken Holvenstot.

Birthdays - C. McIntyre. Also, Jim Oetken was sad until we sang happy birthday to him too because he missed last week. Then he only gave 29¢ to the duck. I guess I don't know what kind of sound ducks make, because I could have sworn it said, "Cheap, cheap".

Russ Mueller reports that our fantastic bowling team shall rise again. He mentioned that everytime Captain Ed Colton is not there to bowl and Russ Mueller is, that the team seems to win all of the games--must be a message there somewhere. We were pleased to hear that Adolph Helm will be bowling again next week following his long illness.

Bob Rush reports that all is well with the membership

Major Adney lost a $2 bet with regards to the Pancake Day but was happy to announce that ground will be broken for the new Salvation Army building this Saturday. Congratulations, Major!

Slander - Our esteemed president, Dick "Watergate" Landis, has brought unsubstantiated charges against the free press in this country because of certain truths that were reported last week in this paper. President Landis, claims that he knew all along that Oslo was located in Norway. "Who are you going to kick around when I'm gone?" he asked in an emotional address to the membership.

This paper calls upon President Landis to produce the tape recordings of November 16 of his conversations with the Cedar Rapids Library when he asked, "Could somebody there please tell me where Oslo is located?" It is our understanding that he has retained the services of a local lawyer who happened to be passing by to press these charges. I call upon the membership to rally behind your editor in this time of trial.
