Bob Butterfield, Editor

October 31 Meeting - Round 3 of the current battle of the century between O. Lawrence and R. Armstrong started with a brisk attack by Orrie. After fiery comments on the verbal integrity of Bob, Orrie then launched into a vehement tirade on all aspects of Bob Armstrong's recent peace proposal, the kindest of which noted that even the professed olive branch was phony! At this point, an offer to mediate this cataclysmic battle in a Christian atmosphere by Rev. A. Herbst was rejected out of hand by both parties.

Bob Armstrong then launched a major counterattack. Noting that years ago he had personally acted as a patron and friend to Orrie within the Kiwanis Club because of the compassion he felt at the time for this "retarded youth", he now finds Orrie ungratefully turning on his benefactor. Bob then proposed that a committee of the whole membership be formed to bring impeachment proceedings against Mr. Lawrence and many of their cronies from both sides of the aisle took up the hew and cry, some for and some against (mostly for).

If it hadn't been for quick reaction by Al Gravelie (self-appointed ad hoc Sergeant-at-Arms) to quell this stormy confrontation, there is no telling where it might have led. However, with a few mild words by Al, the combatants retired, and the meeting continued calmly; our Kiwanis Club having survived another threat within its membership.

October 31 Program - The program itself consisted of excellent presentations by two area high school students who took part in the Experiment in International Living last summer. Mark Ziegler, Marion High School, traveled to Norway and lived with a Norwegian family in a small town in southern Norway. Steve Schrader, Washington High School, visited Switzerland, stayed with a young family near Zurich and was able to do some real mountain climbing while there. We all feel a sense of pride to see these young gentlemen who represent our country and our area on this program.

Tree Planting - The tree planting program for Kiwanis families is still scheduled for November 11 at Northview Park. Planting will begin at 1:30 with the meal planned for 3:00. Phone Tom Heabel if you can attend.

O. A. Anderson - A moment of silent prayer was held in remembrance of O. A. Anderson.

Pancake Day - By the time you read this bulletin, if you haven't turned in your money or returned your tickets for the Pancake Day, you haven't done your share towards making this day a success. However, still better late than never - turn your money in as soon as possible. As of this writing, we have $527 returned.

Other Notes - Al Olberthien, Cedar Rapids Safety Commissioner, was guest of A. Gravelie. Bill Pohorsky had a birthday. E. Colton and G. Young led the melodious sing-along. Ed also gave the bowling report - the team is still progressing towards the top. The Roosevelt tried another experimental meal on the membership. Bob Matteson has moved to the Denver, Colorado area.

Board Meeting - Next Tuesday, November 6 - all membership invited to attend.

November 7 Meeting - A representative of the new Indian Creek Nature Center will describe the center.
