WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

ROOSEVELT HOTEL WEDNESDAYS 12:10 NOON

Iowa
a place to grow

July 6, 1973
Vern Perry, Editor

THIS WEEK----July 11, 1973

Roosevelt Hotel---Downtown KIWANIAN Hugh DeWees describing some of his escapades on the Mississippi River and its tributaries. Hugh and his wife have explored many of our inland waterways in their boat. Seems quite appropriate that Hugh should appear at this time---what with "Tom Sawyer" running at one of the local theatres!

NEBRASKA-IOWA DISTRICT CONVENTION

The Nebraska-Iowa District Convention will be held in West Des Moines August 10 thru August 12----Friday evening thru Sunday. Convention headquarters will be The Webster Inn, Interstate 235 and 35th St. West Des Moines, with convention sessions held in Valley High School on the opposite side of Interstate 235.

BOARD'S BOILIN'

With enthusiasm! You know---some of the Downtown KIWANIS' board meetings are almost as interesting as the Wednesday noon luncheons? If you haven't attended a board meeting recently, suggest you drop in at noon, The Roosevelt, the first Tuesday of some month. We don't have to be an officer, board member or committee chairman. Every member is invited to sit in----and invited to contribute his two-bits worth. Won't say that all is honey and harmony every meeting, but that's what the meeting is for----take action on club matters and kick around new ideas. And such enthusiasm! Like when Dick Landis expounded on the up-coming Pancake Day! (And Dick trying to take off a few pounds, too!)

If you have read this far---you deserve a few morsels of information concerning what's afoot. The KIWANIS Clubs of Cedar Rapids and Marion are planning a "Pancake Day" for this fall. Ed Colton provided the initial spark to get the plan moving. As President-elect of the Downtown KIWANIS, Dick Landis has relieved Lt. Governor Ed and is proceeding to get the project underway. Ed, President Bill, Dick and Charlie McIntyre, and possibly others, have already done a lot of spade work. You will be hearing more of this project. You're involved, you know!

Same meeting----The Board approved a contribution of $100 to the Salvation Army to help send needy children to the Army's summer camp; agreed to contribute $125 to help the Kawkeye Council of the Boy Scouts of America purchase Cubmaster Training Kits. (Incidentally, did you know that Mrs. Ralph Dresher was the first Boy Scout Cub Den Mother, not just in CR, but in the whole worldwide BSA organization? She was given recognition in the Scout magazine several years ago. Ask Ralph about it some time.)

President Jameson has appointed Gene Young to head a recently formed "Projects" Committee. Bob Demeulenaere and Tom Heable have agreed to give Gene a hand. Gene, Bob and Tom will provide ideas for Board review and implimentation. But Roy Parker has done such a fine job in recent months with his Share Your Life Committee, that there appears little possibility that he will get off the hook! The combined efforts of the two committees will assure that the Downtown KIWANIS' "Share Your Life" program will continue and will expand. There was more last Tuesday, but I'm getting tired of tapping the keys of this mill---and I know you are tired of reading. But do join us for lunch and a board meeting soon.
