Iowa
a place to grow

Vern Perry, Editor

THIS WEEK---August 8, 1973

Roosevelt Hotel-----"SAY GOODBYE," somewhat a controversial film produced some three years ago by the Wolper Organization to bring attention of the public to the threat which wild game hunters post to endangered wildlife and the associated delicate balance of the environment.

The National Rifle Association has, according to Washington columnist Jack Anderson, "...wheeled out its big guns..." to stop the showing of the film. The NRA has had only limited success, but Russ Mueller advises their campaign has made it difficult to obtain the film. The film was recently shown to the Rotary Club. Russ has taken advantage of it being in CR to arrange a showing for us. It runs some 45 minutes. Sounds like this program should bring out both the hunters and the environment protectionists! See you at the Roosevelt next Wednesday noon. (I'm a convert to the protectionist ranks. Many years since I pulled a trigger. How about you?)

BOARD MEETING---Tuesday noon, August 7, Roosevelt Hotel.

REPORTS DUE---Committee reports due to Joe Power no later than the Board Meeting Tuesday, August 5.

PANCAKE DAY---November 3, 1973. Details will follow.

LAST WEEK

Shenandoah's most famous export, Tennis Champion Frank Nye, told us about the recently ended "frustrating but productive" session of the Iowa Legislature.

Did you know that the "Nye Poll" gets 100% return from its questionnaires distributed to the legislatures? That the return from Frank's most recent survey indicates the average age of the legislators in the last session was 45.2 years---the youngest legislature in Frank's long career (30 years) of covering the Des Moines sessions? That there were eight legislators between 21 and 25 years of age and only five between 66 and 75? And that those young people---like your kids and mine---don't feel that the fact that just because "it has always been done that way" is a good enough reason for continuing? That in quantity, the "four"-runners were 34 Methodists, 28 Catholics, 23 Presbyterians and 21 Lutherans? And that the reason Frank Nye gets 100% return on his survey is that if the questionnaire doesn't come back --- he runs down the laggard and interviews him? That the KIWANIS Pancake Day will be held on November 3?

Frank Nye said it appeared to be much more difficult to muster enough votes to get a bill passed than is normally the case. He thinks this may be because 60 of the members were new to the legislative body. The normal number of "freshman" legislators is more like 30 to 40. Even Frank, who has been close to the whole business for so many years, finds the size of the current budget shocking---$1.7 billion! That compares to $416 million ten years ago. But he says it takes careful analysis to really determine the actual increase---shifting of taxes, etc., a complex explanation Frank gave, but I'll admit it left me reeling. But I did get one point. Those fellows and gals in Des Moines have obviously been following the Watergate affair. Every campaign contribution made in Iowa, down to and including those made to candidates for city offices, must be reported!

The "Truck Length", "Organization of a Department of Transportation" and "No-Fault Insurance" are among the bills on which action was delayed but are on the agenda for next session. Frank Nye says the longer he thinks about it, the more he realizes that the last session of the Legislature really did accomplish a lot--- it wasn't all frustration!
